The chart illustrates the progression of the 2016-17 Premier League season. It begins with 20 teams on the left, grouped by league: Premier League (blue), Championship (orange), and League One (green). The chart shows the progression of each team through various stages, with some teams being eliminated and others advancing. The final stage shown is the relegation to the Championship, with three teams (Barnsley, Mansfield, and Notts County) being relegated. The chart is color-coded by league: Premier League (blue), Championship (orange), and League One (green).
